The Democratic Convention.

The Democratic National Committee has decided to hold the next National Convention at St. Louis, beginning on July 6th. Two ballots were taken to determine the convention city. In this selection the growing influence of the Middle West in politics is shown. In delaying the convention until July 6th, the National Committee took a long and wise step in the direction of a short campaign. It will have two weeks in which to note the results of the Republican convention at Chicago before selecting the party standard bearer, and the consequent delay in opening the campaign will be most heartily welcomed by the business interests of the country. The details of the committee meeting indicate also that the conservative element in the party has gained the ascendancy.—Irish American.

The Ditch Company.

The Hamakua Ditch Company has filed its papers with Treasurer Ke-poikai, also the names of its new officers. John Hind is president, J S Low secretary and F Wundenberg treasurer. In regard to capital, etc, the incorporation petition says:

The capital stock of the corporation shall be $1000, divided into 100 shares of the par value of $10 each.
All of this stock shall be common stock.

The corporation reserves the privilege of extending the amount of its capital stock to a sum not exceeding $3,000,000 and of issuing shares of the same for value thereof, in such proportions of preferred and common stock as it shall determine.

Another Fish Man.

The United States government is going to try to find other food fishes around these islands and to that end will shortly send Prof Cobb here. Following is an extract from a letter to Inspector Berndt on the subject:

Our Mr John N Cobb expects to go to Honolulu very soon to make another canvass of the commercial fishes of those islands. I hope to send with him some copper tanks and formalin for your use in preserving specimens for us.

Johnson's First Road.

No one can appreciate the excellence of the roads Road Supervisor Johnson is building without close personal inspection. The editor of the Bulletin, riding out King street last evening, made an involuntary tour through a section of Johnson's number 499 macadam. The horse coming upon the road improvement suddenly described a double somersault. The editor went head first into coarse grade macadam. The road suffered no injury.—Evening Bulletin.

New Officers.

At a meeting held yesterday the Merchants' Association elected the following officers: George W Smith, president; Robert Catton, vice president; J H Soper, secretary; W W Harris, treasurer. Directors—J G Rothwell, E A McInerney, J F Humburg and H E Wichman. Messrs Catton and Harris were appointed a committee to draft a set of resolutions to be sent to Secretary Taft, asking that a regiment of soldiers be stationed in Honolulu.
